

DIDSBURY PIONEER

VOL. VIII

DIDSURY, ALBERTA, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 16th, 1910.

No. 46

J. V. BERSCHT

Our Sole Aim

Just Received--A car load of No. 1 B. C. Apples

REITZEL & KALBFLEISCH
Boot and Shoe Repairing done here

Great Bargains
AT Bill Bailey's

APPLES $2 per box as long as they last
All fine stock.

25 per cent. off Leather Shoes

These two bargains are for cash or produce.

New stock of Felt Shoes and will give 10 per cent. off on these, cash or trade

Remember the place

BILL BAILEY

Don't mind what the other fellow says

AROUND THE TOWN

Man, like the fire, is apt to torment woman by going out at night.

For Sale — Thoroughbred Rhode Island cockerels. J. L. Beane & Co.

Milk For Sale — Apply to F. D. Anderson at Mrs. McTavish's late residence, Osler street.

N. Weicker announces that he will in future take in hogs every Monday. Top prices will be paid.

The Merry Musicians at the Opera House on Tuesday, Nov. 22, don't fail to see this attraction.

Wanted — At once, a capable maid in family of two, highest wages paid. Apply to Miss Lacker, East Didsbury.

The Merry Musicians will appear at the Didsbury Opera House on Tuesday, Nov. 22 under the direction of C. P. Walker.

Lost — A gray twill overcoat on the blind line west of Didsbury on Monday, Nov. 7th. Reward given for return to Pioneer office.

For Sale — 1 new National cream separator, 450 lb. capacity, $50; 1 good second hand sewing machine, $10. Allan Good.

Lost — A sheep lined coat between the Rosebud hill and town or in town. Leave at Coopers' or south feed barn. John L. Parker.

Scott and Co., the new blacksmiths on north Railway street are now doing business and with experienced workmen can turn out the best of work. They make a specialty of horseshoeing.

Mr McElwain, the junior at the Union Bank, who has been very ill with typhoid fever at Calgary returned to town last week, but is still to much under the weather to take up his duties.

G. C. Sexsmith will conduct the following auction sale this month: R. V. Bower, Nov. 21st; J. Metzgar, Nov. 22d; S. Holquist, Nov. 23rd; L. H. Plank, Nov. 24th; Geo. Beattie, Nov. 30th; all west of Didsbury; W. Burroughs, Three Hills, Nov. 29th.

The fall swing tenders were received by the provisional directors of the Curling Club: L. Dohner for construction, $524; D. S. Shantz & Co. for material (not including hardware) $830; Hiebert & Ryckman for material and construction, $1,300. The contract was let to Hiebert & Ryckman.

The Jas. Fox Concert Co. is to be used to appear at the Opera House on Monday, Nov. 28th. The company is prettily the same that has appeared here for the past three seasons and needs no commendation from us as the name of Fox alone is guaranteed of a splendid evening's enjoyment. An addition has been made to the company this year in the person of Mr. Reuben Fox, a son of James and a chip of the old block.

A wagon load of white turnips was brought into town last week by one of our farmers who lives west of town, but whose name we were unable to learn, which beat anything for size and quality ever seen here. One of them was purchased by Mr. J. P. Conrad which weighed 18 1/4 lbs. and was perfect in shape, size and quality. One more boost for the Didsbury district, which can not only raise the best hogs, beef, grain and dairy products but is also a leader in root crops.

Ira Levgood left on Tuesday for a visit to Chicago.

Just received, a big shipment of linoleum and linoleum varnish. Durrer & Brusco.

Manager F. N. Ballard of the Union Bank made a short business trip to Winnipeg last week.

Garrison Bros. who used to be in the blacksmith business in Didsbury will open up a shop either at Three Hills or Acre.

The Paton Bros. wish to announce that Mr. John Paton has taken over the Chicago Aeromotor wind mill business from D. B. and W. L. Martin and that hereafter Paton Bros. will be able to supply those wanting wind mills at the old McCormick stand.

Rev. J. S. Ferguson, a former Presbyterian pastor here, who has been supplying for Rev. (Doug.) Ramsay at New Liskeard since his return from Turkey, has received a call from North Bay, Ont. and will be induced into his new charge early in December. We understand this is a large congregation and we with a great many others in this district, wish him every success in his new charge.

The funeral of little Freeda Liesemer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Liesemer, which took place on Friday afternoon last, was very largely attended. The services at the Evangelical church were conducted by Revs. Eichhacker and Martin and the church was filled to the doors. The flowers were magnificently and were donated as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Berscht, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Callish; cross from employees of W. V. Berscht; wreath, Mrs. C. Liesemer and family, Midday, Ont.; cross, Mr. and Mrs. G. Liesemer; carnation; cross, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Liesemer; spray, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Bellier; wreath, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Bellier; door wreath, Didsbury Lodge C. O. O.; F. E. wreath, King Huron Lodge A. F. & A. M.; wreath, public school teachers and school trustees; spray, Mr. and Mrs. Wiegand; spray, Miss A. E. wreath, Evangelical Sabbath School; spray, Ladies Aid, Evangelical church.

Anniversary Services

In connection with the eighth anniversary of the Knox Presbyterian Church, special services will be held Sunday, Nov. 20th, at 3 and 7.30 p.m. The Rev. S. Bacon Hillocks of St. Paul's, Calgary, will preach at both services. Offerings, except the envelopes, will be applied to overdues notes and manse debt.

On the Monday evening following, Nov. 21st, a lecture will be given by Mr. Hillocks entitled "The Man From Gilleaf, a Philosopher of Success," supplemented by music and refreshments. Instead of an admission fee a free will offering will be taken to be applied as above, and the church managers express the hope that the offering, together with those of Sunday, will be generous.

The Liquor License Ordinance

Application has been made by J. F. McCarney for consent to the transfer of the license granted to Gus Bonnass in respect to the Alexander Hotel, situated on lots 1 and 2, block 2, Three Hills, Alberta. The application will be heard by the Board of License Commissioners at a meeting to be held at Olds on Wednesday, December 14, 1910, at 3 o'clock p.m.

Patel at Edmonton this tenth day of November, 1910.

L. F. CLARRY,
Deputy Attorney General.

UNION BANK

OF CANADA

Capital, Rest and Undivided Profits
$5,644,700

Total Assets over $44,000,000

Not One Man in a Thousand

ever gets a start in life (unless he inherits money) except by regular saving.

A Savings Account is almost invariably the foundation of success.

Start an account now in the Union Bank of Canada. It will help you to save systematically—and increase your savings with Compound Interest.

DIDSURY BRANCH:
F. N. BALLARD, Manager
CARSTAIRS BRANCH:
W. E. EMBURY, Manager

Sleepless Nights

Can be avoided both for yourself and the children when you give them

Chambers White Pine and Tar
with Eucalyptol & Honey

It's Soothing, it's pleasant, it's a Cough Syrup that does the work.

Sold in 25c Bottles.

H. W. CHAMBERS

Drugs and Stationery

Fresh Meats

Chops, Veal Cutlets, Mutton, Pork, Steaks, Fresh Sausage

Orders delivered to any part of town

We buy HOGS and POULTRY live or dressed at any time, delivered when ordered.

HIGHEST CASH PRICE PAID FOR BEEF HIDES

Didsbury Meat Market
N. WEICKER, Prop.

Did it ever Strike You

That there were bargains in lumber as well as in other goods. It's a fact, and sometimes you can get better bargains in lumber than at a dry goods counter.

A BIG DROP in price occasionally occurs. At our yard the prices have dropped and we are now selling lumber at almost cost.

Now is the time to buy lumber to build that house you are planning.

If bought here it is sure to be A. 1 lumber at a low cost.

We also handle the famous

Clover Bar Coal

Which is the cleanest coal that is sold in Didsbury.

D. S. SHANTZ & CO

More and More New Goods

Our Sorting Order of New Fall Goods has arrived, including all the Staple Lines to make our stock complete.

Will give you a list as near as possible of the different lines that just came to hand.

The Little Darling Stockings, in White, Tan, Cardinal and Black, sizes 4 to 7.

Ladies' Tan Cashmere Hose, full range of sizes.

Collar Rushings in many new shades.

Veilings in Chiffon and Net, everything that's called for.

Ladies' Black Cashmere Gloves, silk lined.

Ladies' Moresne Underskirts in Black, Brown, Green, Navy and Cardinal.

Ladies' Silk and Wool Fascinators.

Gray Military Flannels in light and dark gray.

And hundreds of other lines that only an up-to-the-minute store like this handles.

Stocking Special

We were fortunate in making this lucky buy of Ladies' Black Cashmere Hose, 500 pairs. Seems a lot for one store to handle, but the value can't be beat at 35¢ a pair.

Saturday's Special, 4 pair for $1.00.

STUDER & COMPANY

General Merchants

W. G. Liesemer

Headquarters for

Shelf and Heavy Hardware, Stoves, Tinware, Furnaces, Wall Papers, Sherwin-Williams Paints, Deering Machinery, John Deere Implements

Job Work a Specialty

Call in and see our National Canada Stoves

The Range With A Perfect Oven

The oven of a Sask-Alta Steel Range roasts and bakes perfectly. It is so constructed that the distribution of heat is always even. The turkey or joints cook to a nut-brown turn on all sides. The puddings, bread and pies always come out of the Sask-Alta oven evenly baked. Another advantage is size. It takes the largest joint or the biggest turkey—and four ten-inch pies can be set side by side. Added to all this, the oven is properly ventilated so gas or fumes never affect food. The McLary thermometer always indicates accurately the proper degree of heat for any purpose. The nickel-steel lining can't bulge or warp—can't burn out; won't admit dust. Ask the nearest McLary agent to point out the many other points of merit found in the Sask-Alta alone. Write now for the Sask-Alta booklet. Address the nearest McLary branch.

Sask-Alta Steel Range

68

McClary's

London, Toronto, Montreal, Winnipeg, Vancouver, St. John, N.B., Hamilton, Calgary

W. G. LIESEMER, Agent.

The Didsbury Pioneer

PUBLISHED AT DIDSBURY, ALTA.

SUBSCRIPTION: One Dollar per year in advance. All issues for six months or more will be at the rate of $1.50 per year.

Advertising Rates quoted on application.

H. E. OSMOND, EDITOR.

The International Prison Congress

Supt. R. B. Chadwick, who represented the Province of Alberta at the recent International Prison Congress held in Washington, D. C., states that all past experience confirms prison workers in eliminating as far as possible the vindictive idea from punishment and educating the morally weak or vicious to a comprehension of a square deal and to the point of useful citizenship.

"Probation has proved a most powerful factor in the moral reform of adults, for too often a man errs more in judgment than intent and the sound advice and kindly help of a probation officer not infrequently is all he needs to steady him on his feet. In the case of children from 9 to 97 per cent, respond at once to probation treatment."

"The Russian delegate surprised the Congress by reporting that mild sentences in special institutions, correction of physical defects, probation under supervision, removal from bad home surroundings, industrial schools with trade and education departments are among the good things that his country is utilizing in the correction and reformation of children."

"The work done among the children of France compares favorably with that done in any other part of the world. France places a delinquent child in the custody of friends or relatives during the time it is awaiting trial. The court claims the right of decision as to whether or not a child is capable of discretion and bases its finding on that opinion. Imprisoning judges to take the cases of juvenile delinquents, they are chosen from among the men on the bench who have special qualifications for child work. All delinquent children under twelve are provided security and surveillance through corps of probation officers and a complete system of reporting. A competent individual investigates the home conditions and surroundings of an children dealt with by the court as essential to gain the true hearings and in order to meet the true needs of the child."

"The famous maxim of the Congress was in favor of prevention. Prevention not only retains the earning capacity of the individual and his good citizenship as an asset to the state but saves the heavy expense of his incarceration. Prevention is vigilant in diverting into channels of useful activity the energy which crime would otherwise dissipate. It is safe to forecast that the reform work of the future will follow along these lines. By devoting more thought, effort, time and money to the care and education of children the state is the gainer not only by the financial returns of worthy lives but by the enhanced progress of the nation."

The Department of Neglected Children, Edmonton, invites correspondence from all persons interested in securing child life, protecting neglected children and providing homes for the homeless.

For Sale, Lease or Exchange

I have a 9 room house in Victoria, B. C., semi-modern, 1 1/4 miles from Victoria City Hall, with land 313 feet by 110 feet, streets on 3 sides, all planted to apples, pears and plums, 30 of which are bearing heavily, balance all young trees bearing two years; there are also on this plot of land raspberries, strawberries and other small fruits; good stables and other outbuildings. Also a 3 roomed semi-modern cottage adjoining above property, land 28x110, with 15 fruit trees. Will exchange, lease or sell the above for town or farm property. Robert Moore, Box 104, Didsbury, Alta.

BALE TIES

*****

Just received a car load of oiled ties, the only oiled wire in town.

Call and see me
Before you buy

THE PRICE IS RIGHT

O. W. HEMBLING*AUCTION SALES

to be conducted by

G. B. Sexsmith, Auctioneer

John Metgar at S. E. 1/4 Sec. 16, T. 31, R. 2, W. 5, on the farm known as the Witten farm, 3 1/2 miles west and 1/2 mile south of Didsbury, on Tuesday, Nov. 22. Sale commences at 11 o'clock.

H. Hank at N. W. 1/4 Sec. 12, T. 31, R. 2, W. 5, on the farm known as the Kennedy farm, 2 miles west of Didsbury, on Tuesday, Nov. 22. Sale commences at 11 o'clock.

G. W. Bower, S. E. 1/4 Sec. 13, T. 31, R. 2, W. 5, 7 miles west of Westcott, on Tuesday, Nov. 22. Sale commences at 11 o'clock.

Stan Holmquist, Sec. 6, T. 31, R. 2, W. 5, 7 miles southwest of Didsbury and 2 miles east of Westcott, on Wednesday, Nov. 23. Sale commences at 11 o'clock.

G. B. Bell at N. E. 1/4 Sec. 18, T. 32, R. 2, W. 5, 1/2 mile southwest of Olds, 1 1/2 miles northwest of Didsbury, on Wednesday, Nov. 20. Sale at 1 o'clock.

W. Burroughs at Three Hills on Tuesday, Nov. 22, 1906.

NOTICE

All persons retaining cattle branded flag 3 quarter circle under on left ribs, and cattle branded 5 quarter, quarter circle over on right rib and worn on cheek, are requested to notify Charles Black, Westcott P. O., and save further trouble.

STRAYED

On the 26th day of October, a bay mare 5 years old, weight 1000 lbs, branded G. F. on left rib, has a crooked front left foot and a right hind and was seen about one mile west of Whaley, Didsbury.

Nov. 23

TO TRADE

On 1/4 section of land, 12 miles west of Castaing, to trade for stock. Apply J. Edmundson, Sterlingville.

WANTED TO EXCHANGE

N. 1/4 Sec. 14, Tp. 36, R. 40, partly improved, and the N. E. 1/4 Sec. 16, partly improved, and the S. E. 1/4 Sec. 17, partly improved, and the S. W. 1/4 Sec. 18, T. 31, R. 2, W. 40, for timber or houses. Prices very low. Will trade any quarter separately. Address Simon Downie and Sons, Castaing.

Cattle Brands

Cattle branded 1/4 quarter circle on left rib and 1/4, 1/2, 1/4 quarter circle on left rib belonging to J. Cooper, Didsbury.

Notice

Take notice that application will be made by the Hiebert Gaddes Findlay Company, Limited, to the Provincial Government at the Town of Didsbury in the Province of Alberta to the Registrar of Companies for the said Province, to change the name of the Company from the Hiebert Gaddes Findlay Company, Limited, to the Gaddes & Findlay Company, Limited, Dated at Didsbury, Alberta, this day of October, 1910.

Hiebert Gaddes Findlay Company Ltd.

BERT BOOKER
Painter and Paper Hanger

First Class Workmanship and Reasonable Charges

Write or see him before having work done

Post Office Address

DIDSURY, ALTA.

Beds, Comforts & Blankets

Cool nights call for such needfuls as these. It's the warm kind we make a point of keeping. Our stock is complete and we are showing a wide range

Light Fluffy Comforts from $2.00 up.

Just received a large shipment of Window Blinds, Curtain Poles, Lace and Tapestry Curtains, which we are offering at exceptional values.

DURRER & BRUSSO

Furniture and Undertaking

WARNING!

There is only one maker of Semi-ready Clothes in Canada

The Label and Price marked is in the Pocket of every Garment.

Unless the Semi-ready label and the plain price mark is in the pocket of the coat, the garment is not a "Semi-ready."

Semi-ready Tailoring has attained such a prestige that many counterfeits are being made, and some unscrupulous dealers use the word "Semi-ready" as descriptive of cheap and unworthy imitations.

Semi-ready Tailoring

J. V. BERSCHT.

FREE TRIP TO THE
OLD COUNTRY
Open to all Readers of
THE DIDSBURY PIONEER

The Family Herald and Weekly Star, of Montreal, is going to send three or more of their readers to the Old Country next June at the time of the Coronation, with all expenses paid from any part of Canada and a liberal allowance for spending money.

We have completed arrangements with the Family Herald publishers by which our readers can enter the competition for this prize trip and it certainly will be a trip to be remembered.

Here are the Conditions

The issue of the Family Herald and Weekly Star of September 15th, 1910, had 655,370 readers based on an average of five readers to each paid subscription.

How Many Readers will the Issue of March 15, 1911, on the same basis have?

We offer the Didsbury Pioneer and the Family Herald and Weekly Star for 1 year each at $1.75, and every person accepting this offer, has the right to make an estimate and the Family Herald and Weekly Star will send the first of its readers who make the correct or nearest to correct estimate to England with all expenses paid from any part of Canada and a liberal allowance for spending money.

Estimate coupons can be had at this office, which must be filled in and accompany your subscription to the two papers.

The Family Herald and Weekly Star, of Montreal, is the greatest Family and Farm paper on this Continent, and can safely be depended upon to carry out this unique competition impartially.
We hope to see some of our readers win the trip. Send your subscriptions in now.—Didsbury Pioneer.

$50 Pocket Money.

We will give $50 as pocket money to any of our readers winning first, second or third prize in the above competition, but only one fifty will be paid. The conditions are the same as above. You must subscribe for the Didsbury Pioneer and the Family Herald and Weekly Star at $1.75 for the year and all back subscriptions must be paid up.—Didsbury Pioneer.

CUT FLOWERS
for YOUR HOMES

Roses $1.50 to $2.50 per doz.
Carnations $1.00 per doz.
Chrysanthemums $1.00 to $3.00 per doz.

All flowers grown and sure to give satisfaction.

Having the largest greenhouses in the west we can supply the demand.

RAMSAY, FLORIST
EDMONTON, ALTA.

50 YEARS'
EXPERIENCE
PATENTS
TRADE MARKS
COPYRIGHTS &c.

Applying pending a search and description may make it necessary to pay a small fee. An invention is probably patentable if it is new, useful, and non-obvious. A patent is a right to exclude others from making, using, offering for sale, or selling the invention, without changes, in the Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation in the world. $1.00 per year. $1.00 per copy. $1.00 per month. $1.00. Sold by all news-sellers.

MUNN & CO., 361 Broadway, NEW YORK.

Branch Office, 621 P St., Washington, D. C.

A telephone line from Leduc to Clearwater is to be constructed at once.

Forest Reserves

In the report of the Superintendent of Forestry, which forms part of the annual report of the Department of the Interior, recently published, are given many interesting details as to the administration and working of the forest reserves.

The most startling development in regard to the forest reserves is, of course, the setting aside of the Rocky Mountain forest reserve, a tract of country aggregating some 14,400 square miles, some of which is already reserved as national parks (i.e., the Rocky Mountains Park, the Kootenay Lakes Park and Jasper Forest Park). The great importance of this reserve is due to the opportunity it affords for the preservation and conservation of the waters of the rivers which rise in the Rockies and traverse the prairie country and whose waters pass so important a role in the fertility of the soil of this, one of the richest farming countries of the world. The forest on the tract consists mainly of old-growth pine, Engelmann spruce and Douglas fir. Very serious fires have occurred throughout the reserve in times past but the natural reproduction over the greater part of the reserve at any rate, is abundant.

Further extensions of the reserves are contemplated, in fact, some of the woods have a ready been reserved from settlement, though not formally set aside as reserves. Among the proposed extensions are:

To the Sprucewood's reserve, 7,000,000 acres.

To the Duck Mountain reserve, 13,000,000 acres.

To the Cypress Hills reserve, 80,000 acres.

To the Beaver Hills reserve, 22,000 acres.

Similar action has been taken in regard to a tract of 5,000 acres near Spirit Lake, Sask. The foregoing extensions total 93,000,000 acres, or over 475 square miles.

A tract of land which includes Mount Ida and the Fly Hills (near Salmon Arm, B. C.) was also inspected in the fall of 1909, with a view to being set aside as a forest reserve.

Much other interesting information in regard to the reserves and the other work of the Forestry Branch is given in the annual report of the Superintendent of Forestry above mentioned. Copies can be had by sending an application to R. H. Campbell, Superintendent of Forestry, Ottawa.

A young stonecutter by the name of L. C. White was found in the basement of the new court house of Edmonton with his neck broken on Friday last.

He was found unconscious.

THE TINSMITH

By Margaret Busbee Shipp

He is further, returning from a vacation, found Overman lost over some papers late one afternoon, Riggbee vs. Universal Traction Company?

"No."

"Yes, it comes up for trial tomorrow. The traction company have three witnesses, and I have but one child, who I think party will interest. It will be another case of an defendant exonerated in a temple of innocence built by the eloquence of its attorneys."

"Are you going to build a rival temple for his party?" "I will do my best to find the leak in the roof," Overman grimly replied.

"It was Overman's ability to find the leak in the roof that has gained him the title of 'The Tinsmith.'

When the case was called the following day the Traction Company denied any liability, alleging that Riggbee had stepped on the track, and had not been struck, thus bringing on the accident by his own carelessness.

Riggbee's story was that he was standing on the platform, waiting for the car to come to a full stop, and broken his glasses and was using particular caution, when the conductor's "Step lively there!" followed by a stock punch, which caused him to slip, dragging him to lose his balance and fall beneath the wheel of the motor truck. His foot had been crushed, gurgling blood set in, and the leg had been amputated.

His little daughter, terrified, almost inarticulate, summited her corroborative statement.

Overman had his set theory of the function of the cross-examination. He believed in his credibility as witness whom he believed to be living—he gently led the witness to discredit himself. Any direct attack upon the witness's character was the only way the jury for the wrong-headed man. A direct question along the line of testimony will be answered by the witness, according to which he has had and will strengthen his cause. It is therefore necessary to distract the attention of the witness from the main story, to get him to make a statement of which the premise will fit at variance with his original premise, and but the furtive eyes shifted. For a moment the man struggled with the unexpected question, whether it were better to declare his real abode, so at variance with his present, gentlemanly position, as to prevent his going to the hotel quarter, with which he had been familiar in the past.

"Apartment or hotel?"

"I am the owner of the former, and it seemed safer to reply,

"Apartment."

"Will you tell me the janitor's name?"

"I do not remember."

"The elevator boy's?"

"I do not know."

"The name of the owner of the apartment?"

"I have forgotten."

"The name of the agent to whom you make out cheques for rent?"

"I do not recall." He had been confident enough in his coming story, but wandering in the region of pure inventiveness he was afraid, not knowing where pitfalls might lie.

"You have an uneven memory for details," said Overman's agent with a smile.

The witness sat down, relieved that it was quickly over and that his testimony had not been attacked. He was not clever enough to realize that he had been proved a sorry liar.

Overman's agent was a gentleman of leisure, but added the details of the conversation with the plaintiff. He swore that he had picked up Riggbee, and that when he had asked if he had any statement to make, that Riggbee had declared the accident was not the fault of the conductor or motorman, but the result of his own carelessness.

"Did Riggbee give you any message for his sister?"

"Mother?"

"No."

"Daughter?"

"No."

The velvet voice was at its softest. "No last message for sister or mother or child, only for the Universal Traction Company?"

But the furtive eyes shifted. For a moment the man struggled with the unexpected question, whether it were better to declare his real abode, so at variance with his present, gentlemanly position, as to prevent his going to the hotel quarter, with which he had been familiar in the past.

"Apartment or hotel?"

"I am the owner of the former, and it seemed safer to reply,

"Apartment."

"Will you tell me the janitor's name?"

"I do not remember."

"The elevator boy's?"

"I do not know."

"The name of the owner of the apartment?"

"I have forgotten."

"The name of the agent to whom you make out cheques for rent?"

"I do not recall."

He had been confident enough in his coming story, but wandering in the region of pure inventiveness he was afraid, not knowing where pitfalls might lie.

"You have an uneven memory for details," said Overman's agent with a smile.

The witness sat down, relieved that it was quickly over and that his testimony had not been attacked. He was not clever enough to realize that he had been proved a sorry liar.

Overman's agent was a gentleman of leisure, but added the details of the conversation with the plaintiff. He swore that he had picked up Riggbee, and that when he had asked if he had any statement to make, that Riggbee had declared the accident was not the fault of the conductor or motorman, but the result of his own carelessness.

"Did Riggbee give you any message for his sister?"

"Mother?"

"No."

"Daughter?"

"No."

The velvet voice was at its softest.

"No last message for sister or mother or child, only for the Universal Traction Company?"

She was silent, plucking shamefacedly at her skirt.

The lawyer repeated the question.

"Will you tell me the janitor's name?"

"I do not remember."

"The elevator boy's?"

"I do not know."

"The name of the owner of the apartment?"

"I have forgotten."

"The name of the agent to whom you make out cheques for rent?"

"I do not recall."

He had been confident enough in his coming story, but wandering in the region of pure inventiveness he was afraid, not knowing where pitfalls might lie.

"You have an uneven memory for details," said Overman's agent with a smile.

The witness sat down, relieved that it was quickly over and that his testimony had not been attacked.

Overman's agent was a gentleman of leisure, but added the details of the conversation with the plaintiff. He swore that he had picked up Riggbee, and that when he had asked if he had any statement to make, that Riggbee had declared the accident was not the fault of the conductor or motorman, but the result of his own carelessness.

"Did Riggbee give you any message for his sister?"

"Mother?"

"No."

"Daughter?"

"No."

The velvet voice was at its softest.

"No last message for sister or mother or child, only for the Universal Traction Company?"

She was silent, plucking shamefacedly at her skirt.

The lawyer repeated the question.

"Will you tell me the janitor's name?"

"I do not remember."

"The elevator boy's?"

"I do not know."

"The name of the owner of the apartment?"

"I have forgotten."

"The name of the agent to whom you make out cheques for rent?"

"I do not recall."

He had been confident enough in his coming story, but wandering in the region of pure inventiveness he was afraid, not knowing where pitfalls might lie.

"You have an uneven memory for details," said Overman's agent with a smile.

The witness sat down, relieved that it was quickly over and that his testimony had not been attacked.

Overman's agent was a gentleman of leisure, but added the details of the conversation with the plaintiff. He swore that he had picked up Riggbee, and that when he had asked if he had any statement to make, that Riggbee had declared the accident was not the fault of the conductor or motorman, but the result of his own carelessness.

"Did Riggbee give you any message for his sister?"

"Mother?"

"No."

"Daughter?"

"No."

The velvet voice was at its softest.

"No last message for sister or mother or child, only for the Universal Traction Company?"

She was silent, plucking shamefacedly at her skirt.

The lawyer repeated the question.

"Will you tell me the janitor's name?"

"I do not remember."

"The elevator boy's?"

"I do not know."

"The name of the owner of the apartment?"

"I have forgotten."

"The name of the agent to whom you make out cheques for rent?"

"I do not recall."

He had been confident enough in his coming story, but wandering in the region of pure inventiveness he was afraid, not knowing where pitfalls might lie.

"You have an uneven memory for details," said Overman's agent with a smile.

The witness sat down, relieved that it was quickly over and that his testimony had not been attacked.

Overman's agent was a gentleman of leisure, but added the details of the conversation with the plaintiff. He swore that he had picked up Riggbee, and that when he had asked if he had any statement to make, that Riggbee had declared the accident was not the fault of the conductor or motorman, but the result of his own carelessness.

"Did Riggbee give you any message for his sister?"

"Mother?"

"No."

"Daughter?"

"No."

The velvet voice was at its softest.

"No last message for sister or mother or child, only for the Universal Traction Company?"

She was silent, plucking shamefacedly at her skirt.

The lawyer repeated the question.

"Will you tell me the janitor's name?"

"I do not remember."

"The elevator boy's?"

"I do not know."

"The name of the owner of the apartment?"

"I have forgotten."

"The name of the agent to whom you make out cheques for rent?"

"I do not recall."

He had been confident enough in his coming story, but wandering in the region of pure inventiveness he was afraid, not knowing where pitfalls might lie.

"You have an uneven memory for details," said Overman's agent with a smile.

The witness sat down, relieved that it was quickly over and that his testimony had not been attacked.

Overman's agent was a gentleman of leisure, but added the details of the conversation with the plaintiff. He swore that he had picked up Riggbee, and that when he had asked if he had any statement to make, that Riggbee had declared the accident was not the fault of the conductor or motorman, but the result of his own carelessness.

"Did Riggbee give you any message for his sister?"

"Mother?"

"No."

"Daughter?"

"No."

The velvet voice was at its softest.

"No last message for sister or mother or child, only for the Universal Traction Company?"

She was silent, plucking shamefacedly at her skirt.

The lawyer repeated the question.

"Will you tell me the janitor's name?"

"I do not remember."

"The elevator boy's?"

"I do not know."

"The name of the owner of the apartment?"

"I have forgotten."

"The name of the agent to whom you make out cheques for rent?"

"I do not recall."

He had been confident enough in his coming story, but wandering in the region of pure inventiveness he was afraid, not knowing where pitfalls might lie.

"You have an uneven memory for details," said Overman's agent with a smile.

The witness sat down, relieved that it was quickly over and that his testimony had not been attacked.

Overman's agent was a gentleman of leisure, but added the details of the conversation with the plaintiff. He swore that he had picked up Riggbee, and that when he had asked if he had any statement to make, that Riggbee had declared the accident was not the fault of the conductor or motorman, but the result of his own carelessness.

"Did Riggbee give you any message for his sister?"

"Mother?"

"No."

"Daughter?"

"No."

The velvet voice was at its softest.

"No last message for sister or mother or child, only for the Universal Traction Company?"

She was silent, plucking shamefacedly at her skirt.

The lawyer repeated the question.

"Will you tell me the janitor's name?"

"I do not remember."

"The elevator boy's?"

"I do not know."

"The name of the owner of the apartment?"

"I have forgotten."

"The name of the agent to whom you make out cheques for rent?"

"I do not recall."

He had been confident enough in his coming story, but wandering in the region of pure inventiveness he was afraid, not knowing where pitfalls might lie.

"You have an uneven memory for details," said Overman's agent with a smile.

The witness sat down, relieved that it was quickly over and that his testimony had not been attacked.

Overman's agent was a gentleman of leisure, but added the details of the conversation with the plaintiff. He swore that he had picked up Riggbee, and that when he had asked if he had any statement to make, that Riggbee had declared the accident was not the fault of the conductor or motorman, but the result of his own carelessness.

"Did Riggbee give you any message for his sister?"

"Mother?"

"No."

"Daughter?"

"No."

The velvet voice was at its softest.

"No last message for sister or mother or child, only for the Universal Traction Company?"

She was silent, plucking shamefacedly at her skirt.

The lawyer repeated the question.

"Will you tell me the janitor's name?"

"I do not remember."

"The elevator boy's?"

"I do not know."

"The name of the owner of the apartment?"

"I have forgotten."

"The name of the agent to whom you make out cheques for rent?"

"I do not recall."

He had been confident enough in his coming story, but wandering in the region of pure inventiveness he was afraid, not knowing where pitfalls might lie.

"You have an uneven memory for details," said Overman's agent with a smile.

The witness sat down, relieved that it was quickly over and that his testimony had not been attacked.

Overman's agent was a gentleman of leisure, but added the details of the conversation with the plaintiff. He swore that he had picked up Riggbee, and that when he had asked if he had any statement to make, that Riggbee had declared the accident was not the fault of the conductor or motorman, but the result of his own carelessness.

"Did Riggbee give you any message for his sister?"

"Mother?"

"No."

"Daughter?"

"No."

The velvet voice was at its softest.

"No last message for sister or mother or child, only for the Universal Traction Company?"

She was silent, plucking shamefacedly at her skirt.

The lawyer repeated the question.

"Will you tell me the janitor's name?"

"I do not remember."

"The elevator boy's?"

"I do not know."

"The name of the owner of the apartment?"

"I have forgotten."

"The name of the agent to whom you make out cheques for rent?"

"I do not recall."

He had been confident enough in his coming story, but wandering in the region of pure inventiveness he was afraid, not knowing where pitfalls might lie.

"You have an uneven memory for details," said Overman's agent with a smile.

The witness sat down, relieved that it was quickly over and that his testimony had not been attacked.

Overman's agent was a gentleman of leisure, but added the details of the conversation with the plaintiff. He swore that he had picked up Riggbee, and that when he had asked if he had any statement to make, that Riggbee had declared the accident was not the fault of the conductor or motorman, but the result of his own carelessness.

"Did Riggbee give you any message for his sister?"

"Mother?"

"No."

"Daughter?"

"No."

The velvet voice was at its softest.

"No last message for sister or mother or child, only for the Universal Traction Company?"

She was silent, plucking shamefacedly at her skirt.

The lawyer repeated the question.

"Will you tell me the janitor's name?"

"I do not remember."

"The elevator boy's?"

"I do not know."

"The name of the owner of the apartment?"

"I have forgotten."

"The name of the agent to whom you make out cheques for rent?"

"I do not recall."

He had been confident enough in his coming story, but wandering in the region of pure inventiveness he was afraid, not knowing where pitfalls might lie.

"You have an uneven memory for details," said Overman's agent with a smile.

The witness sat down, relieved that it was quickly over and that his testimony had not been attacked.

Overman's agent was a gentleman of leisure, but added the details of the conversation with the plaintiff. He swore that he had picked up Riggbee, and that when he had asked if he had any statement to make, that Riggbee had declared the accident was not the fault of the conductor or motorman, but the result of his own carelessness.

"Did Riggbee give you any message for his sister?"

"Mother?"

"No."

"Daughter?"

"No."

The velvet voice was at its softest.

"No last message for sister or mother or child, only for the Universal Traction Company?"

She was silent, plucking shamefacedly at her skirt.

The lawyer repeated the question.

"Will you tell me the janitor's name?"

"I do not remember."

"The elevator boy's?"

"I do not know."

"The name of the owner of the apartment?"

"I have forgotten."

"The name of the agent to whom you make out cheques for rent?"

"I do not recall."

He had been confident enough in his coming story, but wandering in the region of pure inventiveness he was afraid, not knowing where pitfalls might lie.

"You have an uneven memory for details," said Overman's agent with a smile.

The witness sat down, relieved that it was quickly over and that his testimony had not been attacked.

Overman's agent was a gentleman of leisure, but added the details of the conversation with the plaintiff. He swore that he had picked up Riggbee, and that when he had asked if he had any statement to make, that Riggbee had declared the accident was not the fault of the conductor or motorman, but the result of his own carelessness.

"Did Riggbee give you any message for his sister?"

"Mother?"

"No."

"Daughter?"

"No."

The velvet voice was at its softest.

"No last message for sister or mother or child, only for the Universal Traction Company?"

She was silent, plucking shamefacedly at her skirt.

The lawyer repeated the question.

"Will you tell me the janitor's name?"

"I do not remember."

"The elevator boy's?"

"I do not know."

"The name of the owner of the apartment?"

"I have forgotten."

"The name of the agent to whom you make out cheques for rent?"

"I do not recall."

He had been confident enough in his coming story, but wandering in the region of pure inventiveness he was afraid, not knowing where pitfalls might lie.

"You have an uneven memory for details," said Overman's agent with a smile.

The witness sat down, relieved that it was quickly over and that his testimony had not been attacked

A Didsbury Gasoline and Coal Oil Story

A couple of weeks ago we were approached by the Standard Oil Co. (We meant to say the Imperial Oil Co.) to handle their gasoline, because we had been very successful in selling and supplying the people at large with the White Rose Gasoline and the National Light Coal Oil, which have been and are a very satisfactory gasoline and coal oil.

The Standard Oil Co., (we meant to say the Imperial Oil Co.) told us at the time that unless we would handle their products that they would sell at wholesale prices in a retail way to everybody that came along. Being that we refused to handle their gasoline has roused their commercial jealousy so much that they now sell their gasoline to everybody at wholesale prices.

By the above facts you will observe that we have been the innocent indirect cause of forcing the Standard Oil Co., excuse us, the Imperial, to sell their gasoline at wholesale prices in a retail way, and are experiencing some of the Standard Oil Co.'s tactics. However, we will do business at the old stand, both in White Rose Gasoline and National Light Oil, neither of which are the products of that great American Octopus, the Standard Oil Co., and if any of our old or new patrons should later on or at present find that the White Rose Gasoline and the National Light Oil is to their interest to use and purchase, we will be only too pleased to accommodate them in every possible way. Remaining

Yours sincerely,

C. HIEBERT & CO.
Hardware, Lumber,
&c. &c.

Out West

Official Auditor E. A. Hayes of Okotoks is auditing the L. I. D. books in the district these last two weeks.

W. J. McIntyre took a flying trip to Calgary last week.

A Crawford of Penetanguishene, Ont., is locating on the N. E. 1/4 of sec. 3, 4, 5. He is going to erect a house and farm buildings at once.

J. R. Moon had a barn raising last week and intends giving a big dance as soon as the barn is finished.

English church services were announced for Sunday afternoon, Nov. 6th, and the congregation assembled but the minister failed to appear either in the afternoon or evening, which caused some dissatisfaction to be expressed. We hope it won't happen again.

Rugby district intends holding a box social in the near future. Keep your ears open for the date.

Everybody is eagerly awaiting for the telephone along the line which is now under construction. This will be a great benefit to the farmers in this district and great credit should be given the original promoters of the scheme.

L. Broadbent returned to Elkin on Friday last. He has been working for the C. P. R. at Strathmore.

Tr's Me.,

Rawdonville

The Rev. Atwood was to have celebrated at the Anglican Church Harvest Thanksgiving but was unable to attend owing to illness. Much sympathy is expressed for him in this district and we trust that he will have a speedy recovery.

The Farmers Institute meeting on Saturday the 9th inst. was well attended, quite a number of ladies being present. Mr. Chapman delivered an address on the pound laws and Mr. Patterson followed with a very able speech on the rights of women in Alberta. Both speakers took a broad view of their subjects. The audience agreed with Mr. Patterson that women are entitled to more from Alberta's laws of presentation.

A practically unanimous vote was given in favor of constituting a township comprising a small district. A petition to the Department of Agriculture at Edmonton was drafted and after the local residents have been given an opportunity of signing, will be duly forwarded. Some of the farmers thought that the proposed district should be larger. This proposal was, however, adversely received. It is known that this township, being largely grain producing, is strongly in favor of the movement and the inclusion of other districts where opinions may be divided might weaken our position.

A subscription list has been opened in aid for the new cemetery. Messrs. Patterson, Mann, Wacker, Ferguson and Bauglass are the committee empowered to accept donations. The cemetery is conveniently located in the south of the township adjoining the central north and south road and overlooking the prairie. Mr. Frederick Mills is donating the land and after being suitably fenced it will be surveyed and anyone desiring to purchase a lot may do so, as the amount of their subscription, if any, will be deducted from the purchase price.

For Sale.

I have two first class horses for sale. One is a three year old Clyde. He won first in Scotland as a yearling against strong competition. The other is a seven year old Clyde horse which won first at Chicago and reserved champion as a two year old and was twice first at Portage la Prairie, and yearling and two year old gets of this horse won first in their respective classes and championship and res. champ. as the best Canadian bred stallions at the same show, 1910.

I will sell these horses at prices that will defy competition. Geo. Dolson, Golden West Hotel, Didsbury.

Massey-Harris Implements

and

Ontario Wind Mills and Pumps. Calgary Milling Co's Flour and Feed and the Rumley Threshers.

HORSES FOR SALE

Best of service rendered at all times

C. ZIEGENBIEN

DIDSURY, ALTA.

CANADIAN PACIFIC

ANNUAL

EASTERN CANADA EXCURSIONS

Low Round Trip Rates to

Ontario, Quebec and Maritime Provinces

Tickets on sale Dec. 1, to Dec. 31 inclusive, good to return within three months.

Tickets issued in connection with Atlantic Steamships will be on sale from Nov. 11 and limited to five months from date of issue.

Finest Equipment. Standard First Class and Tourist Sleeping Cars and Dining Cars on all Through Trains. Compartment Library - Observation Car on "Imperial Limited."

3-THROUGH EXPRESS TRAINS DAILY - 3

THE "TORONTO EXPRESS".

Leaves Winnipeg daily at 22.10, making connections at Toronto for all points east and West thereof.

The "Imperial Limited" leaves Winnipeg daily at 8.35, and the "Atlantic Express" at 19.00 daily, making connections at Montreal for all points east thereof.

Apply to the nearest C. P. R. Agent for full information.

A Complete Wood Working plant. A single spoke or an entire wagon built to your order.

Interfering and forging etc., treated on scientific principles. Fancy horse shoeing is our special pride.

SINCLAIR BROS.

General Blacksmiths, Expert Shoers and Up-to-date Mechanical Methods

Discs sharpened and tyres set while you wait.

Our specialty is fine carriage and buggy repairs.

Clearing Sale of Lumber

The Entire Stock of Building Material must be cleared out at once at the following low cash prices:

About 25,000 ft. of native lumber at.....	$19.00	About 150 M. No. 1 XXX shingles .....	2.75
About 25,000 ft. No. 1 moun-shipat and dimensions at.....	21.00	About 30 rolls building paper.....	.35
About 3,000 ft. No. 2 cedar shipat.....	18.00	About 15 rolls bar paper.....	1.10
About 2,000 ft. No. 2 spruce shipat.....	18.00	About 5 rolls 1-ply roofing paper.....	2.50
A quantity of doors and windows at.....		A quantity of doors and windows at.....
10 per cent off.		10 per cent off.
A quantity of spruce lap siding 20.00		50 lbs cement at $1.00 per sack.
40 50 lb. butter boxes, 25 cents each.
A quantity of short drop siding 18.00

I also have about 50,000 ft. of lumber 17 miles west of Didsbury at prices from $18.00 to $23.00 per M.

FOR PARTICULARS CALL AT MY OFFICE
ALLAN GOOD, DIDSURY

Advertise in the Pioneer

